Radio and Sportsmanship

THE OUTRAGED sportsman did not smile in proportion to the strength of his protest. He was angry because he was angry. He was angry because he was angry. He was angry because he was angry.

My old man, John, O'Brien, had no special sense. He was a good man. He was a good man. He was a good man. He was a good man.

Sylvia the season's debutante

"HOW CHARMING!"... "So graceful, so dainty!" "Such an aristocratic air!" Exclamations of delight greet the first appearance of Sylvia... lovely descendant of a long line of patterns that have graced the first tables since the year 1847. And, this finest silverplate is most reasonably priced—six tea spoons—$3.50. Today's hostess has her "guest" set of silverware, just as she has her "best" linen, china and glass.
